3D2N LANGKAWI

Langkawi is an archipelago consisting of 99 islands in the Andaman Sea, south of Thailand, 30km off the mainland coast of northwestern Peninsular Malaysia.

Langkawi's scenic attractions include powdery white sandy beaches, set against a backdrop of limestone hills and lush greenery. The island offers excellent hotels, duty-free shopping spots, a world-class golf resort and many facilities for water sports and eco-adventure trips.

Divers and swimmers will appreciate the colourful and diverse marine life at the Pulau Payar Marine Park while leisure-seekers will take pleasure in Langkawi's scenic attractions and great variety of handicraft.

OPTIONAL TOUR :

Discover Langkawi (4 hrs duration, depart at 1300hrs)

View tropical rainforest & waterfall on northern Langkawi. Visit Malaysia's Largest Crocodile Farm (daily noon show at 1445hrs) & get exhilarating experience going up to Gunung Mat Cincang on Langkawi Cable Car.

Round Island Tour (3.5 hrs duration, depart at 8:30am)

A sightseeing tour by coach exploring the island and the myths and legends behind it. Delve into the mysteries and curses that surround Mahsuri's Tomb. Next, visit the unusual Black Sand Beach. This will be followed by a stop at Eagle Square, the Langkawi's most prominent landmark for visitors arriving by sea. Perched near the Kuah jetty is the magnificent statue of the reddish brown eagle majestically poised for flight. Learn all about batik making at the Batik Village before heading for Kuah Town for some shopping.
