3D2N Snorkelling at Tioman Island

Redang island, locally known as “Gunung Daik Bercabang Tiga” is a small island located 32m off the east coast of Peninsular Malaysia in the state of Pahang, and is some 39km long and 12 km wide. It has eight main villages, the largest and most populous being Kampung Tekek in the north. The densely forested island is sparsely inhabited, and is surrounded by numerous coral reefs, making it a popular scuba diving spot. There are also a lot of resorts and chalets around the island which has duty free status.
